

Honestly

- Text & Melodie: Moritz Schreder -

Vers:

The Music is slow
but this time it's no
love song I wrote about you.

You gambled-away,
your longer stay
and maybe it was your destiny.

Woe betide
you apologize
for something you did
don't care for it.

It's enough to me -
Listen now
'caus you are so cold-heartedly

Bridge:

I Think it's time to say what I like to curse and blame you

It's time to say you
what i think about you
I don't miss you

I think it's time to bawl and call you
shut up - fuck you

It's time to say you
so much for you
I don't love you

Refrain:

Honestly, I don't need you anymore.
Honestly, you are such a crustiness.
Honestly, I don't give a fuck 'bout you.
Honestly, you look like a fool

Vers:

It's not bout me.

It's not bout us.

It's just bout you

yes it can be true.

Please don't cry,

You think you can make me sad?

Just go and try

I'm very upset

I'm done with you

not for a long time

not just yet.

It's not hard to me

you will see

to write this way

about you
