

The Day that Changed a Life

- Text: Moritz Schreder; Melodie: Johannes Mollenkopf -

Refrain:

I called you and sent a mayday
I don't wanna lose you babe
I called you and sent a mayday
I don't wanna lose you babe

Vers1:

The day that changed a life,
Can't remember when it was,
Just the day I was blinded by those eyes,
And I became aware just a moment too late,
That this girl isn't just a fake

Refrain:

I called you and sent a mayday
I don't wanna lose you babe
I called you and sent a mayday
I don't wanna lose you babe

Vers2:

The story became a dreadful one,
A boy who couldn't make up his mind,
For the girl it was the most unpleasant time,
Another angel came along
Just in time to fill the gap.
